An analysis of the pathways, means, and methods for imposing a New World Order—based on research conducted since 2001 by Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev, as well as the 2006 work Theory and Practice of Seizing Control of the Entire World and Imposing a New World Order by Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva—predicted the refugee crises orchestrated by the "deep mafia" starting in 2011. The ultimate goal was the destabilization and draining of the budgets of European nations. These crises served as catalysts for destabilization within European Union member states, facilitating the imposition of a New World Order under the command of corporations linked to the Masonic elite. This includes the "George Soros system" for seizing control of states via refugee crises—a specific step and component in the establishment of a New World Order, involving the testing of procedures and the implementation of "social genocide" to "seize control of European Union countries." Furthermore, Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev proposed a straightforward solution to migration crises—originally presented in 2017 to U.S. President Trump for addressing the migration crisis in Mexico... Rules, laws, and procedures based on the economic theories of Prince Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev-Halachev—a great mind of the 21st century (2010) and 2019 World Champion in Economics, hailed as "the father of modern finance." These include the Theory of Mafiotism; the Theory of Financial-Banking-Resource-Technological Mafiotized Materialism; the Theory of the Mafia; the Theory of Corruption; the Theory of Crisis Generation; the Theory of the Degree of Trust; the Theory of the Degree of Truth; the Theory of Crisis Management; and the theory and practice of money laundering, along with various economic indicators and laws applied in practice. Furthermore, in collaboration with Princess Lady Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva, he has developed theories on the domination of the world and of states/unions; the theory of various types of sovereignty; the theory of the creation and management of inequality and poverty; the theory and practice of money laundering through foreign investment; the theory and practice of imposing sanctions for the sake of profit; the theory of "values-ity" (valueness) and the degrees of values; the theory of social genocide; the "Tuner" (centrifuge) model; and the theory of socio-humanism. These contributions have long merited a Nobel Prize (since 2003)—a fact underscored by the 21 attempts on the life of Prince Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev-Halachev since 2011, which were certainly no coincidence.

ABSTRACT: In 2006, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev-Halachev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed a theory and practice for seizing control of the world with the aim of establishing a New World Order. The theory outlines the possibilities and plans for imposing a New World Order—dating back as far as the 19th century—and details the specific steps taken by representatives of a "mafioso-style" materialism (rooted in banking, finance, resources, and technology) to establish this order. It describes the mechanisms for seizing the sovereignty of all nations and the schemes employed to impose a New World Order, including the triggering and unleashing of a global pandemic.In the year 2006, Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed the "Theory of Social Human Genocide." This theory demonstrates the plans and actions of the "deep mafia" aimed at reducing the Earth's population, inducing illness in people, and depriving them of healthcare and educational systems—all with the ultimate goal of controlling human consciousness. In 2006, Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva formulated the "Theory and Practice of Creating and Managing Fear." In 2006, they also developed the "Tunnel-Centrifuge-Spiral" model, which describes a system of "financially-banking, resource-based, technological, mafia-driven materialism"—a form of materialism that has existed for over 17 centuries. Their other works include the "Theory of Generating Crises" (2008), the "Theory and Practice of Mafiotism" (2010), and the "Theory of the Mafia" (2001). Drawing upon these theories, this paper analyzes the emergence and triggers of the coronavirus epidemic. It further examines the consequences, objectives, and potential outcomes of the pandemic, as well as its impact on various economies and societies, including China, the United States, and Europe.

KEYWORDS: Pandemic, coronavirus, economy, politics.

I. INTRODUCTION

In 2006, Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed a "Theory and Practice of World Domination" aimed at establishing a New World Order. The theory describes... ...the possibilities and plans for imposing a New World Order, dating back as far as the 19th century. This includes a description of every step taken by representatives of a "mafioso-style" materialism—rooted in banking, finance, resources, and technology—to establish a New World Order and seize the sovereignty of all nations. It outlines the schemes used to impose this order, including the initiation and triggering of a global pandemic.In 2006, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed the "Theory of Social Human Genocide." This theory substantiates the plans and actions of a "deep-state" mafia aimed at reducing the Earth's population, inducing illness in people, and stripping them of healthcare and educational systems—all with the ultimate goal of governing and controlling human consciousness. In 2006, Prof. Momtchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva also formulated the "Theory and Practice of the Creation and Management of Fear." Furthermore, in 2006, they devised the "Tunnel-Centrifuge-Spiral" model—a mechanism through which social human genocide and the imposition of a New World Order can be executed.

In 2010, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev developed the "Theory of Mafiotismus" (Mafiotism), which describes a state-level system driven by the private and personal interests of the Prime Minister, ministers, and the government. Based on this "Theory of Mafiotismus," in 2010, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev formulated the concept of "financially-banking, resource-based, technological, mafia-driven materialism"—a form of materialism that has served as a foundational principle for over 17 centuries.In 2001, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev developed the Theory of the Mafia and the Theory of Corruption. Both theories were formulated through an analysis of mafia structures and corruption on a global scale.In 2008, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev developed the "Theory of Generating Crises." This theory was created by analyzing the relationships between nations, as well as the causes and consequences of crises; it examines all possible mechanisms through which crises can be generated.In 2006, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev-Halachev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed the "Theory of the Degree of Democracy" and the "Theory of the Degree of Justice/Injustice." These theories are grounded in their professional experience within the judicial system, the prosecutor's office, and the state apparatus. Specifically, they draw upon the extensive experience of Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva, who served for decades as a judge in both civil and criminal courts, and the experience of Prof. Momtchil Dobrev, who participated as an observer in various types of elections. In 2001, Prof. Momtchil Dobrev established the Theory of Corruption, the Theory of the Mafia, and the Theory and Practice of Mafiotismus—all of which contribute to refining the "Theory of the Degree of Democracy."

In 2001, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev developed the Theory of the Mafia and the Theory of Corruption. Both theories were formulated through an analysis of the mafia and corruption worldwide—including in Bulgaria, Germany, the European Union, and other countries. In 2010, Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev developed the "Theory of Mafiotism" (Mafiotismus), defining it as a new form of state governance oriented exclusively toward the private interests of specific individuals and private institutions.Efforts to combat the mafia and corruption in Bulgaria, the European Commission, and the European Union have yielded no results, as the mafia operates at the highest state and European levels, acting entirely as it pleases. This mafia controls the courts, the prosecutor's office, and various state institutions, all of which carry out its directives. Even after nine attempts on the life of Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev—following his 2011 campaign against this mafia—the struggle continues. As Professor Zhivko Stalev famously stated: "A state without the rule of law is a form of organized crime!"Lord Prof. Momtchil Dobrev-Halachev (PhD, PhD) and Prof. In 2006, Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed the "Theory of the Degree of Democracy" and the "Theory of the Degree of Justice/Injustice." These were based on practical experience within the courts, the Prosecutor's Office, and the state apparatus—specifically, Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva’s decades-long career as a judge (handling both civil and criminal cases), as well as Prof. Momchil Dobrev's experience serving as an observer for various types of elections. In 2001, Prof. Momchil Dobrev formulated the "Theory of Corruption," the "Theory of the Mafia," and the "Theory and Practice of Mafiaism," all of which contribute to refining the "Theory of the Degree of Democracy."Efforts to combat the mafia and corruption within the Bulgarian private enforcement agent system—which has existed since 2006—have yielded no results. This is because the mafia operates at the highest levels of both the Bulgarian state and the European Union, acting with complete impunity. This mafia exerts control over the courts, the Prosecutor's Office, and various state institutions; these entities carry out its orders, engaging in acts of repression and harassment, and destroying the lives of private enforcement agents who do not belong to the mafia.

The problem of the mafia and corruption in Bulgaria, as well as within the European Union and the European Commission, is immense. We have repeatedly submitted evidence regarding the scale of this mafia's operations. Based on the existence of this mafia and corruption in Bulgaria, the European Union, and the European Commission, Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev developed the "Theory of the Mafia" and the "Theory of Corruption"—covering all their manifestations—in 2001. Drawing on these theories, Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev also defined a formula for the mafia and a formula for corruption. Furthermore, based on these processes, he established the "Theory and Practice of Mafiaism," defining a formula for mafiaism itself, explaining how it functions, how it is organized, and whose interests it serves—at the expense of others.

Who is Lord Prince Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev? Born in 1963, he made the imprudent decision in 1982—during an interview with the newspaper Narodna Mladezh—to declare that the Bulgarian Communist Party and the DKMS (Dimitrov Young Communist League) were a "mafia."Following this, and in the wake of repressions against his entire family—compounded by the fact that his father, Dobri Duchev Dobrev, a financier who managed conglomerates across various sectors (transport engineering, general machinery manufacturing, and the chemical industry), had generated hundreds of millions of leva in profit for the Republic of Bulgaria—Momchil Dobrev was forced to flee in 1984 to the German Democratic Republic, where he enrolled at the Technical University in the city of Ilmenau. In just one year and three months, Momchil Dobrev completed a five-year curriculum; within a single year, he sat for and passed written examinations in physics, mathematics, and all other subjects with distinction. Consequently, as early as February 1985, Prof. Karl-Heinz Gothe invited him to participate in physics experiments that led to the discovery of room-temperature superconductivity. Subsequently, Stoil Stoilov, a secretary at the Bulgarian Embassy, threatened Momchil Dobrev, stating that his life would be ruined if he did not steal certain material—an act for which he would be rewarded with 11 million US dollars and a house in the USA. This revealed that the embassy secretary was, in fact, working for the USA and the CIA. Despite these threats, Momchil Dobrev refused to betray his mentors: Professor Karl-Heinz Gothe and Professor Manfred von Ardenne—one of the creators of the Soviet Union's nuclear bomb. As early as 1985, following discussions with Momchil Dobrev, von Ardenne declared him the "next Nobel laureate" and the "genius of the 20th and 21st centuries." It is no coincidence that at an international conference, Professor Michael Roth introduced Momchil Dobrev to an audience of over 500 professors from around the world as "the genius of the 20th and 21st centuries." During this period, Momchil Dobrev was studying a wide range of disciplines, including theoretical physics, biology, neurophysiology, medicine, logic, cognitive psychology, chemistry, various medical branches, brain sciences, and other fields.

These achievements were not mere chance; even as a first-grade student, Momchil Dobrev was solving mathematics problems intended for the third and fourth grades. By the third grade, he was solving problems designed for the sixth and seventh grades—all this without any external tutoring or specialized instruction provided by his family. As a successor to the Dobrev-Halachev dynasty, Momchil Dobrev upholds the principles of honor and dignity, as well as the dynasty's vast assets—valued in the billions.It is no coincidence that Lord Academician Prof. Momchil Dobrev possesses a diverse educational background: he is a physicist (with a Master's degree in astronomy), a legal expert, an economist, and an engineer. He has also studied archaeology and archaeometry, and holds a professional license as a construction technician, qualified to design buildings.As an heir to the Dobrev-Halachev dynasty, Momchil Dobrev safeguards the honor, reputation, dignity, and property of the dynasty—assets that have attracted the interest of the mafia. It is also no coincidence that, as early as 1991, Momchil Dobrev developed two "free energy" generators based on his own theories regarding vortex fields, the field structure of the ether, the composition of the universe, a 16-dimensional universe, 12 levels of consciousness, and the structure of spiritual realms. Furthermore, back in 1991, he provided explanations for dark matter and dark energy, demonstrated that consciousness can travel at speeds far exceeding the speed of light, discovered a new fundamental physical force that governs the universe, and revealed that Einstein's theories contained several errors.Corruption and the mafia within a state undermine democracy, freedoms, human rights, and the rule of law. Consequently, Lord... Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Lady Prof. Marioal Garibova-Dobreva developed the "Theory of the Degree of Democracy" and the "Theory of the Degree of Justice/Injustice," as well as the "Theory of Socio-Humanism"—a societal model that eliminates the flaws of neoliberalism, globalism, and unbridled market economics. This theory lays the foundations for a NEW HUMAN SOCIETY based on entirely different principles—encompassing economic, social, and governance structures, among others. As a consequence of Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev's struggle against corruption and the mafia in Bulgaria—as well as within the European Union and the European Commission—he has faced 17 (seventeen) attempts on his life and the lives of his loved ones since 2011.During President Donald Trump's previous term (2016–2020) and his current term (beginning in 2025), he was personally informed—both directly and through the U.S. Embassy in Bulgaria—about the state-level mafia presence in Bulgaria, which permeated the judiciary, the prosecutor's office, and the government led by Prime Minister Boyko Borissov. Yet, there was no response from President Donald Trump—even though he claimed to be a fighter against the mafia and corruption! President Trump was also informed that the MAFIA in BULGARIA and within the EUROPEAN COMMISSION has caused losses of BILLIONS OF US DOLLARS to an American company by stealing its property—the entity "Bulgarian Posts"—with no action taken or results achieved for over nine years.

At the beginning of his current term, we informed President Trump about this mafia once again; however, no action followed on the part of the President.

At the beginning of the current term, we once again informed President Trump about this mafia; however, no action was taken by President Trump—this despite the fact that an American company has suffered losses amounting to hundreds of millions of euros. Although legal proceedings were initiated as early as 2022 before international institutions—including various courts and other bodies—there has been absolutely no information to date. This points to clear support from these institutions—such as the European Court of Human Rights, UN-related courts, criminal tribunals, and arbitration bodies—for the mafia.This serves as proof of yet another mafia operating within these courts, and of the support provided to the mafia in Bulgaria, Europe, and across the globe.All legal cases filed regarding this theft of property—belonging to an American company and valued in the trillions of US dollars—have simply vanished. These cases involved the participation and support of Prime Minister Boyko Borissov, Chief Prosecutors Sotir Tsatsarov and Ivan Geshev (as well as the current Chief Prosecutor), along with various judges, ministers, and others. To this day, we have received no information whatsoever regarding the status of these cases. Moreover, following the filing of a lawsuit in the United States in 2023 under the RICO Act against former Prime Minister Boyko Borisov, Chief Prosecutors Sotir Tsatsarov and Ivan Geshev, as well as various ministers, judges, and private entities linked to the mafia, an attempt was made on the life of Prince Lord Academician Prof. Momchil Dobrev on November 1, 2023. This incident took place within the Sofia District Court building and involved Judge Lyubomir Ignatov, with the complicit inaction of the Court President, Judge Alexander Angelov, various government ministers, Deputy Minister and criminal judge Dechev, the Prosecutor's Office under Ivan Geshev, and the current Chief Prosecutor, Borislav Sarafov.
The fight against the mafia and corruption—both in Bulgaria and within the European Commission and the European Union—has yielded no results, as the mafia operates at the highest levels of state and European governance, acting with total impunity. This mafia controls the courts, the Prosecutor's Office, and various state institutions, all of which carry out its orders. Even after nine attempts on the life of Prince Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev—carried out since 2011 in retaliation for his struggle against this mafia—the fight will not cease. As Professor Zhivko Stalev famously stated: "A state without the rule of law is a form of organized crime!"

In 2020, with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, a scheme to seize control of the world—aimed at establishing a "New World Order"—was revealed. This involved a mechanism—likened to a "tunnel" or a "centrifugal spiral"—designed to impose a digital diktat, a dictatorship, and a form of "digital mafia-fascism" globally. The scheme employed during the COVID-19 pandemic served, in effect, as a full-scale dress rehearsal for the activation of the "deep mafia's" comprehensive system. Its purpose was to enforce a "new normal"—and, by extension, a New World Order—through a precise and clear system of manipulation and genocide directed against humanity and the global population, with the ultimate goal of establishing this "new normal" and a new world order. This article examines precisely how a supranational institution—the World Health Organization—is being utilized by the proponents of "mafia-fascism" to implement the plan for establishing a New World Order, taking into account the latest developments from the 77th World Health Assembly, held from May 27 to June 1, 2024. 2. Research Methods

II. RESEARCH METHODS

The research methods applied to the concepts developed by Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva—specifically the Theory and Practice of Mastering the World to Impose a New World Order; the Theory and Practice of Social Genocide; the Theory and Practice of the Types and Degrees of Sovereignty; the Theory of Inducing Crises (specifically refugee and migration crises, with the objective of engineering various types of crises—economic, demographic, ethnic, financial, and social—within specific nations); the Tunnel-Centrifuge-Spiral Model; the functions, mandates, and organization of the World Health Organization (WHO); the objectives and practices involved in establishing a New World Order; the strategic plans for its implementation; the tactics employed; and the analysis of imposed genocide based on the observed conduct of governments, the WHO, pharmaceutical companies, scientific institutions, researchers, scientists, physicians, and immunologists—are as follows:

- Analysis of the measures imposed by governments.
- Analysis of the conduct of governments.
- Analysis of the entire process regarding the imposition of a New World Order and the pandemic.
- Analysis of the specific steps and measures taken within this process of imposition. ...of a New World Order and the subjugation of the entire world—and of its states—by representatives of a "mafioso-fascism" rooted in financial, banking, resource, and technological materialism.
- —Analysis of the pandemic situation; practical application.

III. ANALYSIS OF THE METHODS, PATHS, AND MEANS EMPLOYED TO IMPOSE A NEW WORLD ORDER, BASED ON RESEARCH CONDUCTED SINCE 2001 BY PROF. MOMCHIL DOBREV-HALACHEV.

The plan, which is held by the United Nations and covers the period from 2021 to 2030, dates back to September 21, 2001. This plan is cited by Rabbi Amnon Yitzhak.
The plan dates from September 21, 2001.
1. World Government – WG
2. Cashless global currency
3. World Central Bank
4. Global military force
5. End of national sovereignty
6. End of private property
7. End of the family unit
8. Decimation of the population – punishment of every 10th person for the purpose of discipline
9. Control of population growth and density
10. Mandatory vaccination – for the purpose of biological control and genocide
11. Universal Basic Income; wages are abolished
12. Implantation of microchips for payments and surveillance
13. Social credit/rating system
14. Surveillance and biological control mechanism via 5G
15. Rearing of children by the WG; schools and universities become the property of the WG
16. Abolition of private transport – no ownership of private automobiles
17. All companies become the property of the WG
18. Restriction of air traffic
19. Concentration camps – establishment of agglomeration centers
20. Elimination of irrigation systems
21. Elimination of private farms
22. Closure of private agricultural pastures
23. Elimination of single-family homes
24. Restricted use of agricultural land
25. Ban on natural [resources/products] medicines
26. Ban on natural treatments
27. Ban on fossil fuels
To be implemented from 2021 to 2030.

Based on this plan, Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev developed—during November–December 2001—various options for its execution. This work drew upon the concepts he developed, both independently and jointly with his wife.

These include the economic theories of Prince Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev—recognized as a "Great Mind of the 21st Century" (2010) and a 2019 World Champion in Economics, and dubbed "the father of modern finance"—such as:
The Theory of "Mafiotism" (Mafia-ism),
Theory and Practice of Financial-Banking-Resource-Technological "Mafiotized" Materialism,
Theory of the Mafia,
Theory of Corruption,
Theory of Crisis Generation,
Theory of the Degree of Trust,
Theory of the Degree of Truth,
Theory of Crisis Management,
Theory and Practice of Money Laundering,
Various indicators,
Economic laws in practice, and other theories.
Additionally, in collaboration with Princess Lady Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva, he developed: the Theory of Seizing Control of the World (or a state/union), the Theory of Types of Sovereignty, the Theory of "Values-ity" (Value-based Sovereignty) and the Degrees of Values, the Theory of Social Genocide, the "Tuner-Centrifuge" concept, and the Theory of Socio-Humanism.

One of the measures for seizing control of the world and imposing a New World Order involves the creation of specific pretexts—based on the theory and practice of fabricating artificial justifications, managing them, and utilizing them—by representatives of "mafia-fascism" to achieve their objectives: global domination and the imposition of a New World Order.

The measures, procedures, and potential pretexts include the following:
- GENERATING CRISES—economic, financial, social, currency, refugee, and migration crises—with the aim of more easily seizing control of states and alliances.
- INCITING WARS—not just in one region, but in at least two: the Middle East and, in this instance, Ukraine.
- Pandemics.

WARS designed to disrupt or block supply routes—specifically the transport of raw materials such as oil, diesel, and gas—thereby severing the supply chains for agricultural fertilizers. This would inevitably trigger crises regarding food and water across vast areas of various continents. Based on the "theory and practice of creating, organizing, and managing occasions/provocations"—as employed by representatives of what can be termed a "mafia-ized materialism" rooted in finance, banking, resources, and technology—this article will focus specifically on refugee crises. These crises are instigated by the "Deep Mafia" and the aforementioned representatives of this financial-banking-resource-technological-Masonic-mafia-ized materialism. The objective is to destabilize all countries within the European Union (and Europe as a whole) to facilitate the imposition of a "New World Order," trigger economic, financial, social, and currency crises, and enable the "Deep Mafia" to more easily seize control of these nations—in this instance, the European states.These refugee crises are engineered by these very actors; specifically, this text will outline the schemes used—notably by Soros—to manufacture such crises, with the aim of... Destabilization of all European Union member states, with the ultimate goal of facilitating control—since the objective is destabilization and the creation of crises (from which profits are then derived). This allows for easier governance of the European Commission and the EU member states, facilitating their subjugation and enslavement.

The most cost-effective method involves organizing, triggering, initiating, and orchestrating refugee crises that escalate into social and religious crises. This provokes riots, disorder, killings, and the destabilization of European Union states—with the ultimate aim of bringing the entire European Union under the control of the European Commission, leading to its subjugation, enslavement, and total submission, all with the end goal of imposing a new... A world order controlled by American corporations and the corporations of the "Deep Mafia," operating under a system of "mafio-fascism."In reality, Prince Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev and Princess Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva predicted—as early as 2001–2006—the initiation of refugee crises. The ultimate goal was to destabilize and trigger various crises within the European Union's member states, in order to impose a "New World Order" globally—driven by the financial, banking, resource, and technological "mafio-fascist" materialism of the "Deep Mafia."

IV. THEORY AND PRACTICE FOR SEIZING CONTROL OF THE ENTIRE WORLD AND IMPOSING A NEW WORLD ORDER, by Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva (2006) — covering the methods, strategies, tactics, and plans of "corporate Masonic mafia-fascism" to impose a new type of dictatorship.In 2006, Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva developed a theory and practice regarding the seizure of the entire world and the imposition of a New World Order by representatives of "mafia-ism"—specifically, a "mafia-ized" materialism rooted in finance, banking, resources, and technology—or, more concisely, "neoliberal mafia-fascism."

The objective of imposing a NEW WORLD ORDER via a World Government entails the following:
This World Government is to be established by the owners of global corporations aligned with this Masonic mafia-fascism, as well as by politicians—trained and groomed for this specific purpose from within the ranks of the mafia-fascist apparatus. For decades, this mafia-fascism has been cultivating its own leaders through training, support, financial backing, and induction into Masonic lodges.

The imposition of a NEW WORLD ORDER is to be achieved without resorting to war, financial or economic crises, or various forms of revolution—such as "yellow," "pink," or other "color" revolutions, counter-revolutions, and the like. They involve vast sums of money, the violation of freedoms and rights, and the loss of lives. Furthermore, they are limited in scope and scale—whether in terms of territory, continent, or nation—yet they require extensive financial resources, complex organization, the recruitment of numerous personnel, significant funding for salaries and other expenses, and a great deal of time dedicated to manipulation, propaganda, and the enlistment of individuals to carry out these tasks.The most cost-effective method for imposing a NEW WORLD ORDER—one that fulfills the UN's 2001 agenda—is the emergence and execution of a global pandemic.

THE PLAN – A 2001 UN DOCUMENT REGARDING A NEW WORLD ORDER
The comprehensive "Great Reset" plan devised by the global Masonic elite and the "deep" mafia.
In reality, plans to impose a New World Order have been devised on numerous occasions. However, we will not mention specific dates or the individuals involved in the imposition of this New World Order here. Here, we quote a statement by Henry Kissinger:
"Once the herd accepts mandatory vaccination, the game is over! They will accept anything! Control the thinking of the sheep, and you control the herd. Vaccine manufacturers are making billions, and many of you in this room today are investors. It's a huge profit! We thin out the herd, and the herd itself pays for the services provided for its own destruction. Now, what's for lunch?!"
"They must all be vaccinated and chipped first! Then they can go outside!" – Bill Gates
At the onset of the "Cold War" in 1947, Allen Foster Dulles—the first head of the CIA—stated:
"We will throw all the gold of the USA, all the power of the USA, into deceiving and dumbing down the people of the socialist world. We will imperceptibly replace human values with false ones. HOW? We will find like-minded individuals within those countries and in Russia. We will launch subversive activities on a massive scale; we will strip literature of its social essence; we will promote authors who instill in people a cult of sex, violence, sadism, and betrayal—in short, immorality. We need writings that ridicule naturalness and integrity as archaic relics of the past. Vulgarity, brazenness, lies and deception, drunkenness and drug addiction, animalistic fear among the people, shamelessness, informing on others—and many other vices inherent in human nature—must be stirred up." "In this way, we will destabilize generation after generation; we will cause the erosion and corruption of the youth. We will create a human being with the consumerist mindset of a basic, elementary consumer. We will carry all of this out under the banner of 'PROTECTION OF HUMAN RIGHTS AND CIVIL RIGHTS.'"
The New World System, according to Rockefeller, March 20, 1969.

Planned Parenthood
"Population reduction; requiring authorization to have children; redefining the purpose of sex (sex without procreation); universal access to contraceptives; sex education for youth as a tool for a global government; state-funded abortions to reduce the population; promotion of homosexuality; technologies for reproduction without sex; the destruction of the family unit; euthanasia and the "death pill"; restricting access to paid healthcare to eliminate the aging population; strict control over access to medical services; the abolition of private medical practice; difficulties in diagnosing new, incurable diseases; hindering cancer treatment to reduce the population; inducing heart attacks to eliminate individuals; early schooling designed to accelerate puberty and "evolution";

the merging of all religions and the abolition of traditional ones; altering the Bible through the revision of key terms; using the education system as a tool for indoctrination; extending the duration of schooling while ensuring children learn nothing; controlling access to information; transforming schools into community centers; removing specific books from libraries; legislative changes that unleash social and moral chaos; facilitating drug use to create an "urban jungle" atmosphere; encouraging alcohol consumption; restricting freedom of movement; the need for more prisons; the utilization of hospitals. ...as places for isolation; the creation of psychological and physical insecurity; the use of crime to manage society; the curtailment of American industrial dominance; the displacement of populations and economies; the uprooting of social foundations; the use of sports to reshape society; sex and violence in entertainment; the implantation of identification cards/microchips; control over food supplies; control over atmospheric conditions; the study of human behavior for the purpose of instilling desired responses; the falsification of scientific discoveries; and the use of terrorism as a pretext for imposing control." Television that monitors the individual; the concept of private property fading into oblivion; the advent of a new system of legal registration (notarial system). Here, we also cite a statement made by Muammar Gaddafi, the leader of the Libyan Jamahiriya, during the 64th session of the UN in 2009:

"They will create viruses themselves and then sell you vaccines; they will pretend they need time to find a solution, even though they already have it."Rudolf Steiner: "In the past, the Spirit was abolished by a decree of a church council, whereas the soul will be abolished by means of pharmacotherapy. It will be easy to develop a vaccine with which the human organism will be treated from the earliest childhood—even from birth—so as to make it utterly impossible for the human body to ever arrive at the thought: 'I know that the soul and the Spirit exist!'" (GA 177/5)

John Rockefeller (1839–1937), philanthropist
"THE TRUTH IS THAT JOHN ROCKEFELLER DID NOT CARE ABOUT SOCIETY AT ALL; HE VIEWED IT MERELY AS A SOURCE OF RESOURCES! Here are his words:

"We will keep their lives short and their minds weak, while pretending to do the opposite. We will use our knowledge of science and technology in subtle ways, so that they never see what is happening. We will use soft metals, aging accelerators, and sedatives in their food and water, as well as in the air. They will be surrounded by poisons, wherever they turn. The soft metals will cause them to lose their minds. We will promise to find a cure among our many remedies, yet we will only give them more poison.
Chemical poisons will be absorbed through the skin of fools who believe that certain hygiene and beauty products—endorsed by famous actors and musicians—will bring eternal youth to their faces and bodies; and through their hungry, craving mouths, we will destroy their internal reproductive systems. Their children, however, will be born disabled and deformed, and we will conceal this fact. Poisons will be hidden in everything around them—in what they drink, eat, breathe, and wear. We must be ingenious in how we spread these poisons, for they have a keen eye. We will teach them that these poisons are good—using entertaining images and musical tones on television.
Those who seek them out will serve our purpose. We will enlist them to push our poisons. They will see our products featured in films and grow accustomed to them. And never..." ...they will not understand their true effect. When they give birth, we will inject poisons into their children's blood and convince them that we are helping! We will start early, while their minds are still young. We will steer their children toward what they love most—sweets. When their teeth begin to decay, we will fill them with metals that will destroy their minds and steal their future. Once their ability to learn has been impaired, we will create medicines that make them ill and cause further ailments—for which we will then create even more medicines.
We will render them docile and weak before us. They will grow up depressed and sluggish, and they will become obese; when they come to us for help, we will give them even more poison. We will direct their focus toward money and material possessions, ensuring they never connect with their inner selves. We will distract them with debauchery and external pleasures, keeping them from ever becoming one with the universal whole. Their minds will belong to us, and they will do as we say. If they refuse, we will find ways to deploy technology that alters their minds and their lives. We will use fear as our weapon. We will establish their governments and create an opposition within them—we will control both sides. We will always keep our true objective hidden while continuing to execute our plan. They will do the work for us, and we will prosper from their labor. Our families will never intermingle with theirs. Our blood must remain pure (for so it is).
We shall incite them to slaughter one another whenever they oppose us. We shall keep them divided through dogma and religion. We shall control every aspect of their lives, dictating what they think and how they think it. We shall guide them gently, while letting them believe they are governing themselves. We shall sow hostility among them through our own factions. Should a light shine forth from their midst, we shall extinguish it—be it through mockery or the form of death best suited to the occasion. We shall drive them to tear out their own hearts and slay their own children. We shall achieve this by enlisting hatred as our ally and anger as our friend. Hatred will blind them completely, ensuring they never perceive that we are the ones leading them through their conflicts. They will be too occupied with slaughtering one another—wallowing in their own blood and killing their neighbors—to realize that they are, in fact, pitted against us.

We will benefit greatly from this, because they will not see us. For they cannot see us. We will continue to prosper from their wars and their deaths. We will repeat this until our ultimate goal is achieved. We will keep them living in fear and anger, feeding them images and sounds. We will use every tool at our disposal to accomplish this—tools provided by their own labor. We will make them hate themselves and their neighbors. We will always conceal from them the divine truth: that we are all one. This they must never know! They must never know that the world is an illusion. They must always believe that they are not equal. Drop by drop, step by step, we will advance toward our goal. We will seize their lands, resources, and wealth to exert control over them. We will trick them into adopting laws that strip away even the little freedom they possess. We will establish a monetary system that ensnares them forever, keeping them and their children in debt.Should they rise up against us, we will accuse them of murder and present a different version of events to the world, for we will own all the media. We will use the media to manipulate the flow of information and shape their emotions to our advantage. If they turn against us, we will crush them like insects—for they are even smaller than that. They will be utterly helpless to do anything about it. We refer to a plan—prepared within the UN—which covers the period from 2021 to 2030 and is dated September 21, 2001. This plan is cited by Rabbi Amnon Yitzhak.

The plan is dated September 21, 2001:
1. World Government (WG)
2. Cashless global currency
3. World Central Bank
4. Global military force
5. End of national sovereignty
6. End of private property
7. End of the family unit
8. Decimation of the population – punishing every 10th person for the purpose of discipline
9. Control of population growth and density
10. Mandatory vaccination – for the purpose of biological control and genocide
11. Universal Basic Income; wages are abolished
12. Implantation of microchips for payments and surveillance
13. Social credit/rating system
14. Surveillance and biological control mechanism via 5G
15. Child-rearing by the WG; schools and universities become the property of the WG
16. Elimination of private transport – no ownership of private vehicles
17. All companies become the property of the WG
18. Restriction of air traffic
19. Concentration camps – establishment of agglomeration centers
20. Elimination of irrigation systems
21. Elimination of private agricultural holdings farms
22. Abolition of private agricultural pastures
23. Elimination of single-family homes
24. Restricted use of agricultural land
25. Ban on natural remedies
26. Ban on natural healing methods
27. Ban on fossil fuels

To be implemented from 2021 to 2030.
The starting point for this plan is specified as: "Special Operation Coronavirus."

In reality, this plan—this program—aligns entirely with the events of 2020 and the declared COVID-19 pandemic. The actions of those in power demonstrate that they are executing this plan, point by point.

This entails a new order for the economy, society, and the movement of people, capital, and goods. It includes:
Only companies owned by the corporate owners participating in the "world government" are to manage the enterprises that will provide food, water, electricity, and real estate.
Mafia-controlled entities are to provide rental housing.
Mafia-controlled entities are to provide food.
Mafia-controlled entities are to provide meat—produced primarily via 3D printers—while driving all livestock farms, meat processing plants, and meat product manufacturers into bankruptcy.

This entails a new social order, a new cultural order, and a new religious order.

In 2006, Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova-Dobreva formulated the "Theory and Practice of Social Genocide," which encompasses a system of genocide, terror, digital fascism, digital diktat, and dictatorship imposed upon the global population. Based on this theory, Prof. Momchil Dobrev and Prof. Mariola Garibova developed...2003 PROF. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev has developed a theory and practice for generating and instigating crises—one specific type being the "refugee crisis"—based on a system that was subsequently applied after 2011 by Soros and other representatives of the "Deep Mafia."

This entails a new order regarding finance, monetary policy, personal payments, and financial settlements.

- This involves the most cost-effective option: initiating, triggering, and instigating a wave of refugees.
- It also includes the triggering of a global pandemic.
- Birth control.
- A reduction in the planet's total population.
- Deindustrialization—the creation of a new post-industrial society.
- This entails a transformation of all aspects of social life, including the economy and the movement of people, capital, and goods.
- It involves the weakening of industries such as tourism.
- The bankruptcy of small and medium-sized enterprises.
- The disruption of global supply chains.
- This involves the subversion of conventional understandings of democracy.
- This entails the violation of citizens' fundamental rights and freedoms.
- This involves the imposition of authoritarian control and surveillance by governments over citizens.
- The imposition of strict governance and control over citizens—including their rights and freedoms—as well as over small and medium-sized enterprises.
- The introduction of totalitarian control through the declaration of a state of emergency.
- The complete abandonment of democracy as a social system, the disregard for citizens' freedoms and *human rights, and the abandonment of the previous standard of living.
- The abandonment of the "market economy."
- The enforcement of a different business model—specifically online business—and the strengthening of online commerce systems.
- The imposition of control and regulation over key economic sectors.
- A more tightly managed world, characterized by the imposition of controls and restrictions.
- The redistribution of assets—specifically the acquisition of assets at devalued prices, targeting companies deemed significant by those in power.
- The paralysis of economies in China, Europe, and Russia—across all sectors, most notably manufacturing, tourism, and transport—as well as the halting of investments in China’s "Belt and Road Initiative." This includes the closure of entire enterprises and industries, particularly high-tech firms in Europe and China, leading to the collapse of China’s manufacturing base and the industrial sectors of Germany, France, and Europe as a whole.
- Redirecting capital toward the USA, purchasing devalued assets, and changing the ownership of profitable enterprises.
- Triggering a global recession within the economic system and financial markets; causing a radical market downturn and the collapse of stock prices for industrial and other corporate giants, followed by their acquisition for a pittance.
- Consolidating the US dollar’s position as the global reserve currency.
- An assault on Europe—specifically on industrial powers like Germany, France, and Italy—to induce a recession. Causing the bankruptcy of profitable enterprises within the economies of the European Union, and the collapse of the EU itself.

- Testing Europe to see if it is prepared for a military conflict.
- Testing Russia to see how a military conflict would affect it, how it would organize itself, and what kind of resistance it would mount. Bankruptcy.
- Obtaining an answer as to whether Europe is ready for war.
- Instigating an attack on Italy—Italy signed a 40-billion [currency unit] contract for the construction of a port; Italy also extended a contract for the import of gas and oil.
- Control over human societies and all their systems—healthcare, education, the economy, finance, and politics; the imposition of control over freedoms, the regulation and restriction of movement and gatherings, and the curtailment of entrepreneurial activity; the destruction of small and medium-sized enterprises; the closure of large businesses followed by their acquisition for a pittance; and the imposition of a dictatorship regarding speech and assembly…
- Redistribution of ownership following the destruction of small and medium-sized businesses.
- States are compelled to destroy life and their own economies.
- The closure of entire industries—especially the profitable ones—and the laying off or dismissal of the workforce.
- The creation of a new economy with new owners who have acquired devalued assets, such as stocks, companies, and other holdings.
- A single, swift, powerful, and effective blow—a pandemic—striking many people and inciting panic. This serves as a scheme to trigger a financial and economic crisis, increase deficits, generate speculative opportunities, and control the population through strict measures and the restriction of freedoms and movement. It involves instilling fear in the public, precipitating a financial crisis, and expanding deficits.
- The withdrawal of money from circulation, the creation of a debt crisis, and the imposition of financial obligations upon the population.
- The objective is to engineer a situation necessitating massive loans to "tackle" the pandemic. The ultimate goal is to ensnare entire nations and states in a debt spiral, forcing them to sell off their most valuable assets for a pittance.
- Ensuring that the political elite—currently subservient to the representatives of a "mafioso-style" materialism rooted in finance, banking, resources, and technology—remains in power and enacts laws that restrict rights and freedoms, while disregarding democratic principles, constitutions, and citizens' rights.
- Engineering a situation where governments enact laws for the total control of society and the population—via telephones and social networks—under the pretext of "protecting the public." This involves the adoption of unconstitutional laws designed to establish comprehensive, total, and all-encompassing control over the population, as well as over payment methods, financial assets, and more. Governments will pass laws that completely curtail the constitutional rights of citizens, allowing for the surveillance of the population without a court order or judicial authorization.
- In other words, creating the perfect conditions for the imposition of dictatorships—the "New World Order"—by enacting laws that violate human rights, fundamental constitutional rights, and civil liberties.
- Withdrawing money from circulation, which immediately triggers economic crises. These crises, in turn, inflict massive damage upon entire nations, subsequently necessitating the taking on of loans.
- Increasing the deficit—with the aim of ensuring dependency.
- Managing the population through fear; instilling fear among the public.
- Instigating financial crises, instigating currency crises, instigating economic crises.
- Creating an "antipode" (an opposing force/enemy) – through fear and manipulation.
- Creating a mechanism for intrigue; creating a mechanism for generating pretexts – for wars, conflicts, acts of aggression, and acts of sabotage.
- Instigating inflation, followed by deflation.
- Controlling resources – financial resources and all other types of resources.
- The mechanism of intrigue and kompromat (compromising material), and the fabrication of pretexts.
- Creating a pretext for military intervention in a country.
- Controlling governments – not merely through finances, but by cultivating loyal government and state functionaries—starting from their time in universities, global institutions, clubs, lodges, and foundations—ensuring they eventually become presidents, prime ministers, ministers, or heads of key government agencies.
- Controlling security services and possessing kompromat (compromising material).
- Controlling entire nations through debt instruments; controlling governments and states.
- Controlling money—its circulation, movement, flow, and direction.
- Controlling politics and the policies being implemented.
- Control of the press and media, telecommunications companies, and social networks.

- A debt-based economy; control of money. Whoever controls the money controls states, societies, nations, and governments.
- Domination over the masses, nations, and individuals.
- Control of the individual through debit cards, credit cards, mobile phones, and mobile applications—constant surveillance. Mobile phones, social networks.
- Control of civil society through laws that prohibit protests, gatherings, and other activities, under the pretext that people must not leave their homes, walk around the city, or visit parks and gardens—permitting them only to go to grocery stores and pharmacies.
- Management of the population through disease.
- The creation of a scheme following the devaluation of assets—such as stocks, holdings, companies, and manufacturers—whereby these assets are bought up by associates of the representatives of the FBRMM.
- And the scheme to bankrupt the USA.
- Imposition and adoption of laws for mandatory vaccination.
- Introduction of nanotechnologies into these vaccines for the purpose of controlling every citizen, and the use of systems to take action against citizens deemed inconvenient by governments and the global order.
- The following rights and freedoms are violated:
- Freedom of movement
- Freedom of speech
- Freedom of assembly
- Freedom of religious practice
- Freedom of entrepreneurial activity
- Right of access to medical services and treatment
- EUROPE closes its borders. Economies shut down factories.
- Management and control of the finances of all citizens, and their purchasing power.
- Control and management of the movement of every individual citizen.
- Socialization of citizens.

V. OBJECTIVES OF IMPOSING A NEW WORLD ORDER THROUGH REFUGEE CRISES, WITH THE AIM OF SUBJUGATING NATIONS.

Economic Objectives

Causing the economic collapse of entire economies—specifically those of sovereign states—through the use of sanctions and trade restrictions. The ultimate goal is the seizure of the target nation's key industrial sectors and the establishment of control over these industries by the "deep mafia." This involves bankrupting competitors and mandating the dominance of specific, pre-selected companies and their production lines—including in the construction sector.
Imposing an online retail system (via specific corporate entities).
Imposing an online retail system for food products.
Imposing an online retail system for pharmaceuticals.
Imposing an online retail system for all types of goods, including clothing, electronics, household items, tools, and more.
Imposing systems for transport and logistics services.

Triggering a collapse in the share prices of competitors, followed by the acquisition of these companies based on undervalued assets.
Instigating economic and financial crises.
Increasing unemployment.
Inducing a recession—lasting a minimum of 18 months, and potentially extending to 28–36 months. Structural changes in the economic system – the imposition of "Deep Mafia" entities upon businesses.
The provision of bank loans amounting to trillions – a mechanism for the "Deep Mafia" to seize control of entire economic sectors and entire economies.
Increasing debt with the aim of conquering and gaining control over entire nations.
A strike against developing economies. Reducing the exports of their competitors
Triggering a collapse in emerging markets; establishing control and subjugation
Causing the collapse and bankruptcy of small and medium-sized enterprises
Altering consumption patterns—primarily via the internet and social media
Transforming retail chains—IMPOSING RETAIL CHAINS CONTROLLED BY THE "DEEP MAFIA" and destroying competition
Altering resource supply routes—CONTROL OF SUPPLY ROUTES BY THE "DEEP MAFIA"

Restructuring production—EXCLUSIVELY UNDER THE DICTATES OF "DEEP MAFIA" CORPORATIONS
Deindustrialization—of entire nations through various schemes; SEIZING production facilities, DRIVING THEM INTO BANKRUPTCY, and RELOCATING these operations to U.S. territory Altering the nature of industrialization—primarily...
Introducing robotics into manufacturing with the aim of…
Imposition of alternative distribution and sales systems
Introduction of new forms of marketing – DIGITAL COERCIVE MARKETING
Introduction of DIGITAL SOCIAL COERCIVE MARKETING via social networks and the Internet
Transformation of the consumption system
Alteration of the system of resource consumption
Transformation of industrial production
Imposition of the technosphere

Objectives within the social system

Increase in social inequality –
TOTAL SUBJUGATION
Social systems will be placed under strain
Healthcare and insurance systems will be placed under strain
Mandatory masks
Social distancing
Contact tracing
Vaccination system
Killing off the elderly; should anyone survive, mechanical ventilation—which carries a 97.2% mortality rate—will finish them off.
Preparation for the genocide of 7 billion people, or even a population of 1.5 billion. Substitution of spiritual values
Substitution of family values
Substitution of national traditions
Imposition of global cultural cults – social networks, the Internet
Imposition of alternative communication systems – the de-socialization of individuals
Imposition of alternative value systems
Imposition of different values regarding the family – deprivation of direct contact, absence of a value system for the family
Division of nations
Clash of nations, cultures, and social systems
Dehumanization of humanity
Erosion of established psychological norms
Erosion of sexual norms
Erosion of family norms
Erosion of existing social systems
Erosion of established norms in daily life
Replacement of personal human relationships with virtual ones
Digitalization of the population
Digitalization of all spheres of society
Total control of the population
Profound impact on the life of every individual
Imposition of the technosphere

- Freedom of movement
- Freedom of speech
- Freedom of assembly
- Freedom of religious practice
- Freedom of entrepreneurial activity
- Right of access to medical services and treatment

EUROPE is closing its borders. Economies are closing factories,
Social restructuring of citizens
Replacement of all forms of human interaction through the imposition of a digitized intermediary

Geopolitical objectives

Restriction of trade
Restriction of consumption
Limitation of specific types of production in certain regions
Limitation of political influence and control in certain regions
Imposition of specific influence in designated regions
Replacement of existing influence in designated regions
Creation of dependencies—making countries reliant on other nations, corporations, financial entities, or political influence
Restriction of exports
Control and management of exports
Consequently, control and management of revenues and profits for specific sectors, countries, and companies
Restriction of sales within specific areas of a given country
Reduction of trade – a sharp decline
Sharp reduction in travel
Sharp reduction in tourism, as well as the hospitality and restaurant sectors
Sharp reduction in foreign investment
Management and control of foreign investment
Restriction of foreign investment aimed at producing goods and services for a specific regional market—within a given country
Disruption of globalized trade routes, exports, and imports
Disruption of globalization regarding the free movement of goods, services, and capital

Technological Goals

Implementation of digitalization
Integration of technologies into production, supply chains, and finance—leveraging the Internet, social systems, and online sales platforms
Expansion of digitalization in banking, consumer activity, and payments
Promotion of sectors that can be managed remotely (from home)
Transition of business operations from physical offices to online, home-based models
Rapid automation
Transformation of professions and the nature of job roles
Elimination of many human-centric professions Imposition, management, and control of technologies for managing consumption, social systems, public systems, political systems, and economic systems.

VI. PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIALLY-BANKING, RESOURCE-BASED, TECHNOLOGICALLY-DRIVEN, MAFIA-CONTROLLED MATERIALISM THE PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIALLY-BANKING, RESOURCE-BASED, TECHNOLOGICALLY-DRIVEN, MAFIA-CONTROLLED MATERIALISM. THE PRINCIPLES OF FINANCIALLY-BANKING, RESOURCE-BASED, TECHNOLOGICALLY-DRIVEN, MAFIA-CONTROLLED MATERIALISM, AND SOROS'S PRINCIPLES FOR INSTIGATING REFUGEE CRISES AND THE ISLAMIZATION OF EUROPE.

Destabilization of food supplies, inducing famine, causing shortages of basic foodstuffs, and creating a lack of monetary funds.
Destabilization – creating chaos within a state or an entire system from the inside, without the use of war.
Destabilization – creating chaos in the economic sphere.
Destabilization – creating chaos within society.
Destabilization – creating chaos within civil society, leading to increased discontent.
Destabilization of the currency.
Destabilization of the economy.
Destabilization – creating chaos in education and healthcare.
Destruction of a society's moral norms; the replacement or substitution of moral, ethical, and legal norms.
Destruction of a society's ethical norms.
Creation of crises – with the ultimate goal of profit, specifically speculative profit. Destabilization – the creation of chaos within a society at all levels, utilizing ethnic groups, religions, and Islamization.
All of this without WARS.

Demoralization of a society.
Replacement of civil society with artificial structures designed to supplant the genuine civil society.
Funding and support for media outlets—television channels, newspapers, magazines, and others—to facilitate this entire process.
Funding political parties with the aim of bringing them to power and exploiting them.
Funding individuals who may prove useful for these objectives in the future—sociologists, political scientists, politicians, academics, and historians from various walks of life.
Funding non-governmental organizations based on ethnic or religious lines.
Generating public discontent through financial hardship, shortages of food and supplies, and a lack of energy security, with the goal of driving a flow of refugees toward Europe.
Disseminating information regarding the social welfare systems of various European countries, with the intent of leveraging these systems to support refugees—including family assistance, social benefits, and other forms of aid.
Disseminating information about routes for refugee flows.
Disseminating information regarding costs, fees, and related expenses.

APPROACH and MEANS:

Establishing non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in all countries.
Establishing various types of institutes, functioning as NGOs.
Establishing various associations—of judges, prosecutors, investigators, scholars, sociologists, and political scientists.
Establishing institutes.
Funding these NGOs.
Funding these institutes.
Funding specific individuals—politicians, political scientists, sociologists, scholars, analysts, and legal experts.
Funding "quiet" civil revolutions—driven by discontent and civil disobedience—in various countries.
Funding and organizing waves and flows of refugees.
Funding and organizing civil protests to topple regimes in Africa.
Funding initiatives aimed at the disintegration of states, with the goal of seizing their raw materials and resources.
Expanding the borders of the states and governments under their control.
Creating a system to exploit refugee crises and flows for the purpose of Islamizing Europe and plunging it into greater chaos, all for the sake of profit.

- Instigating chaos—political and economic—within a country.
- Importing and exporting corruption and mafia networks.
- Withdrawing money from circulation, which immediately triggers economic crises. These, in turn, inflict massive damage on entire nations—leading to the subsequent issuance of loans.
- Inducing a refugee crisis, which creates economic, social, demographic, societal, and political crises. - Inducing a financial crisis
- Inducing a currency crisis
- Inducing economic crises
- Inducing a political crisis—not necessarily last in importance
- Increasing shortages of food, provisions, consumer goods, energy, energy supplies, and water/water resources—with the aim of subjugation
- World wars have become redundant due to the danger of a nuclear exchange; therefore, the strategy shifts to CREATING CHAOS within entire nations
- Establishing a mechanism for orchestrating intrigues
- Establishing a mechanism for manufacturing pretexts—for wars, conflicts, acts of aggression, and acts of sabotage
- Inducing inflation, followed by deflation
- Controlling resources
- The machinery of intrigue, compromising material (kompromat), and the fabrication of false pretexts
- Generating and financing terrorism, while simultaneously "fighting" it
- Generating a WAVE OF REFUGEES and profiting from it
- Instigating "DEMOCRATIC REVOLUTIONS"—"color revolutions" and the like—in various countries, then exploiting the resulting chaos to install specific corporations that DRAIN THE NATIONS' RAW MATERIALS (as seen in the case of Libya and other countries)

- The Islamization of Europe via refugee influxes - The imposition of a new morality, new value systems, and new moral principles, with the aim of creating chaos within civil society, a state, a nation, and even entire peoples or ethnic groups.
- The introduction and use of marijuana and other drugs for medical purposes.

The current refugee crisis is the combined result of several conflicts:
the West's "humanitarian" war against Syria and Assad;
a Cold War between Russia and the West;
a civil war between Assad and the opposition;
a clash of civilizations—involving different ethnic groups, religions, and cultures;
the instigation of the "color revolutions" (in Libya, Tunisia, Egypt, and elsewhere);
the creation of a food crisis and induced famine, including shortages of wheat.

VII. FOUNDATIONS AND CAUSES OF THE REFUGEE CRISIS ORIGINATING FROM AFRICA, IRAQ, AFGHANISTAN, PAKISTAN, AND SYRIA.

Discovery of new deposits near the areas of Tartus and Latakia—two major port cities.

This concerns the Levantine Basin, which, according to preliminary estimates, holds the potential for 3.5 trillion cubic meters of natural gas, as well as at least 1.7 billion barrels of oil. A second reason involves the formation of the so-called "Shia Crescent"—stretching across Iran, Iraq, and Syria.The Iranians initiated a project involving pipelines that pass through Syria, providing an outlet to the Mediterranean Sea. The Iranians also concluded an agreement with Pakistan, allowing pipelines to reach China directly via Pakistani territory. This runs counter to the interests of the United States, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Turkey, and Kuwait.

These nations are also the primary sponsors of the rebels. Subsequently, pretexts for launching a war against the Assad government were fabricated—such as the alleged torture of children in the city of Daraa. Thus, the spiral of insurrection began.

The aforementioned countries aimed to destroy the infrastructure of the entire nation. As for the people who became refugees: they largely originate from poorer neighborhoods—areas characterized by high birth rates and low literacy levels. These populations are easily controlled and manipulated; they are Islamists—individuals who sympathize with the Muslim Brotherhood. The so-called Free Army consists of dozens of armed groups—such as Al-Nusra, Al-Farouq, and Ahrar al-Sham. Two-thirds of these fighters are not Syrian; they are Islamists—more akin to the Taliban—hailing from Libya, Afghanistan, Pakistan, Chechnya, and Saudi Arabia.
The United States is involved because Iran—alongside Qatar and Russia—is a major player in the natural gas sector.

Israel has begun exploiting the Tamar gas field, which is part of the Levantine Basin. Other nations linked to this basin include Cyprus and Greece—though they have been struck by financial crises, which were by no means accidental.

Syria and the Assad Family : They belong to the Alawite branch of Shia Islam. Although Alawites make up only 12% of Syria's population, they control all resources and telecommunications. They are secular-minded; they celebrate Christmas alongside Christians, and their women do not wear headscarves. Sunnis account for over 70% of the population, while Christians make up about 12%—approximately 2.5 million people.
The United States and Saudi Arabia sought to win the Sunnis over to their cause.

However, the majority of Sunnis are secular in their outlook. Consequently, Islamists were brought in from all over the world. They have attacked Christian towns—such as Saidnaya and Marmarita—as well as the Christian quarter in Damascus.

The situation in Syria before the war: Before the war, Syria had no external debt; education and healthcare were free. There was large-scale industrial production, with factories and entire, self-contained production cycles in place. Prior to the war, Syria was developing at a rapid pace, offering plenty of work and numerous opportunities. Students who had studied abroad returned to continue their careers in Syria. Small and medium-sized enterprises, traditional crafts, and family businesses were flourishing.

On the negative side, there were issues such as the filing of denunciations, the detention and disappearance of political prisoners, and punishments meted out for trivial offenses. Nevertheless, Syria was a more secular and democratic state than Kuwait, Saudi Arabia, Qatar, or Bahrain.
In Saudi Arabia and Qatar, Christian symbols are prohibited, and women lack basic rights.
Syria stood out as one of the most tolerant and secular nations in the Middle East—among all the Muslim-majority countries. Christians in Syria enjoyed full rights, observed weekends on Saturdays and Sundays, and had their own separate courts.
In Saudi Arabia, Christian preaching is punishable by death.
The objective was the destruction of the most secular state in the region.
Islamists from all over the world—including Saudi Arabia, Pakistan, Afghanistan, Tunisia, Chechnya, Libya, Iraq, Qatar, Kuwait, and Sudan—joined the side of the rebels.
The goal was the killing of the Syrian population—most notably women and children. The goal is the eradication of Christians in Syria.
There are no longer any Christians in Iraq.
Syria is a cradle of Christianity.
The goal is to transform Syria into a radical Islamic state.
ISIS and Saudi Arabia do not differ in terms of ideology. Both share the same doctrine of Wahhabism and Salafism: the destruction of churches, the imposition of jihad, the killing of Shiites, a religious police force, stoning, and public executions.

According to Amnesty International, Saudi Arabia has carried out twice as many beheadings as ISIS.

The goal is for the US to seize the oil and set its sights on Iran.
Saudi Arabia, Qatar, Kuwait, and Bahrain finance ISIS, while the UAE accuses Europe of racism.

Syria has taken in refugees: Circassians in 1839; hundreds of thousands of Greeks, Armenians, and Syriacs fleeing the genocide committed by the Ottoman Empire in 1915; Palestinian refugees between 1948 and 1967; Kuwaiti refugees in 1990; Lebanese refugees in 1996 and 2006; and over 2 million Iraqi refugees—including more than half a million Iraqi Christians—fleeing mob violence.

The Arab Spring and the "Color Revolutions"
This is the third wave, which began in 2011. The outbreak of the "Arab Spring" and the toppling of dictatorial regimes in the neighboring Middle Eastern region was a process engineered with the specific aim of generating refugee flows.
Factors triggering the Arab Spring:
The root causes lie in the decades-long practices of the International Monetary Fund and the World Bank, as well as a critical shortage of wheat needed to feed the population.

Wheat shortages in the region spanning North Africa to the sub-Saharan zone. The Arab Spring erupted across North Africa. First, Ben Ali fell in Tunisia, followed by Mubarak in Egypt, Gaddafi in Libya, and subsequently Saleh in Yemen. This was followed by the civil war in Syria, aimed at the ouster of Assad A political vacuum immediately emerged, which was filled by the "Islamic State." Their objective was the establishment of a continental caliphate. Simultaneously, they drove down the price of grain. The primary catalyst that ignited the Arab Spring in Africa was a spike in grain prices. This was orchestrated with the involvement of the world's largest food trading companies: ADM, Bunge, Cargill, and Louis Dreyfus.In reality, these four corporations control 90 percent of the global wheat trade. Effectively, they dictate the price that humanity must pay to secure its food supply. Food insecurity is most acute in this region, as is the shortage of wheat—a staple essential for feeding the population across the entirety of Africa. This directly impacts the region. ...to the Sahara. 55 percent of the food consumed is imported, and wheat accounts for over 37 percent of that 55 percent.

These four companies are driven solely by the pursuit of profit. Even in a situation like that of 2005—characterized by price volatility and uncertain yields—these four firms hedge against their own positions. Ultimately, they profit exclusively from this.
It is no coincidence that the word for "bread" in Egypt also means "life."
Although the region is fertile, it remains among the poorest in the world.
Consequently, 40 percent of the populations of Egypt and Yemen live in poverty.

The World Bank and the International Monetary Fund are to blame for this tragedy—a tragedy that, in the end, serves to fuel conflict within these nations. Their actions threaten to destabilize the entire region, potentially triggering an explosion of unrest in a matter of days. Both the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have drastically cut subsidies for wheat production, encouraging the export of fruit to the West instead. As a result, the region has become increasingly dependent on the actions, intentions, and profit-seeking agendas of these four corporate giants.

It takes very little for riots to erupt. The attack launched by Barack Obama against the four major wheat-trading firms served as a pretext—one that resulted in a rise in wheat prices prior to the outbreak of the Arab Spring. He failed. In effect, this rendered the entire region of North Africa dependent upon a "mafia-like" system of financial, banking, and technological control—a system dominated by Jewish-owned banks and wheat-trading corporations.The Islamic State exploited this situation to drive down prices and win the trust of the common people, positioning itself as the force that "cares for their survival and their lives."
In reality, the Islamic State emerged as a liberator for the peoples of North Africa.

The result is the collapse of statehood across all North African countries, followed by waves of refugees. The culprit lies in "short positions" on the stock exchange—involving sums in the quadrillions of US dollars—from which our "FBRTM MATERIALISM" (specifically, Jewish-owned banks) profits. 62% of those reaching Europe's shores by boat come from Syria, Eritrea, and Afghanistan—countries torn apart by war, oppressive dictatorships, and religious extremism.
In Syria, all three factors are present.

Europe—the final destination for these refugee flows, intended to create chaos and drive the Islamization of the continent.
For years, Europe has been the primary destination for immigrants from Africa and the Middle East.
In 2015, the influx of refugees surged dramatically due to the civil war in Syria and Chancellor Angela Merkel's stance that immigrants were welcome in Germany.Refugees typically enter Europe via Greece and traverse the Balkans, seeking a better life in Western or Northern Europe.

THE REFUGEE WAVE AS AN "IMPORT OF TERRORISM" INTO EUROPE.

Islamist Organizations
Currently, over 180 Islamist organizations are active in Europe—most of which operate as non-governmental organizations (NGOs). On one hand, they promote the idea of establishing a global "caliphate," while on the other, they actively combat those who oppose the Islamization of Europe.
All these non-governmental organizations receive funding from European taxpayers.
Furthermore, they are supported through sponsorship from a number of Middle Eastern states.
Since 2010, these Islamist organizations have received over 400 million US dollars in sponsorship and funding through European programs.

Most of these organizations are linked to the "Muslim Brotherhood"—a group established in Egypt 90 years ago. Like Al-Qaeda and the Islamic State, they aim to create a "global caliphate."
Currently, the Muslim Brotherhood possesses the most extensive network of legal entities on the continent, primarily in the form of non-governmental organizations.
At the same time, they maintain ongoing contact with Salafists and jihadists.
According to contributors to the "Islamist World Map," the highest number of Islamist organizations operate within the United Kingdom. MI5 monitors over 23,000 Islamists who are British citizens. There are 84 such organizations active in the UK.
The three movements that established and control these organizations are the Muslim Brotherhood, the Palestinian Islamist movement Hamas, and Turkey's Committee on Religious Affairs—known as the Diyanet. Their so-called "business model" is the "fight against Islamophobia"—a strategy that effectively conceals the true objectives of these organizations. Under the pretext of combating Islamophobia, they secure actual funding from the European Commission and the governments of Sweden, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, the United Kingdom, and Norway. These nations have provided a combined total of over 165 million US dollars. Another 159 million US dollars has come from Qatar and Saudi Arabia—sourced from their respective governments, as well as charitable foundations, private individuals, and royal families.

In 2014 alone, the Danish Islamic organization Islamisk Trossamfund received 20 million US dollars from the Qatari government, while the Muslim League in Belgium received 1.2 million US dollars from Qatar. In reality, these non-governmental organizations do not focus their efforts on promoting "peaceful Islam"; instead, they wage a campaign against those who resist the creeping Islamization of European countries and society.In fact, this process is encouraged and supported by the majority of European liberals and left-wing politicians. This is a deliberate, targeted effort.

VIII. SOROS'S STRATEGY FOR TRIGGERING THE REFUGEE WAVE.

In reality, through his actions and the outcomes of his activities, Soros demonstrates that he is working precisely according to this agenda. Indeed, George Soros is among the most active sponsors of the fight against "Islamophobia." His "Open Society" foundation has provided millions of US dollars to various Islamic organizations. While the "Muslim Brotherhood" is not the direct recipient of these grants, the "European Network Against Racism" has been a primary beneficiary of this continuous stream of funding. Another organization funded by George Soros is Inssan, an association dedicated to promoting Islam in Germany. This organization also has ties to the "Muslim Brotherhood." Typically, 60% of such funding originates from Persian Gulf states and the Federation of Islamic Organizations in Europe. This financing includes the construction of mosques—for instance, 3 million euros were provided for a mosque in Malmö, while the royal family of Bahrain has planned an investment of 151 million euros for the construction of a massive mosque in Helsinki.
In Bulgaria, over the last 10 years—under the administration of Prime Minister Boyko Boyrisov—thousands of mosques have been built, whereas in Orthodox Bulgaria, only... [a few] churches have been constructed. In reality, the salaries of the imams in these mosques are paid by the Turkish Diyanet, or by Saudi Arabia and the Persian Gulf states. The goal of these communities is to build a parallel Muslim society within the host country—one that serves as a bridge for the entire wave of refugees.

Yusuf al-Qaradawi, the de facto, unofficial ideologue of the Muslim Brotherhood, states openly: "I often tell my brothers in other countries: try to create your own small society within the larger one; otherwise, you will dissolve into it, like salt in water."Essentially, these organizations provide a foothold in European countries for a large-scale, "silent" invasion directed against Christianity—and not only against Christianity, but also against the rights, freedoms, morals, ethics, and legal and moral norms championed by leaders like Merkel and Macron.
In effect, "European liberal—and neoliberal—democracy" has become a functional tool for the formation of a "caliphate."Islamists frequently invoke the principle of equality, while constantly complaining that their religious rights and freedom of expression are being violated. In reality, this concept not only creates divisions within European Muslim communities but also actively drives their radicalization.These Muslim communities function as closed groups—a structure capable of shattering the open societies of European nations. This concept effectively imposes Sharia laws—the very laws that Islamists are enforcing upon European Muslims.
In reality, Islam is gradually becoming a part of the lives of Europeans.

This is happening, among other ways, through food and dietary habits—specifically, "halal" food. According to Reuters, global spending on such food reached $1.1 trillion in 2015 alone, with profits amounting to $41 billion. These food products generate revenue for the "Muslim Brotherhood." In France, 60% of the production of these foods is controlled by the "Muslim Brotherhood," as they are the sole entities authorized to certify products as "halal."This refers to the Union of Islamic Organizations in France, which comprises more than 200 constituent groups.

THE SOROS (György Schwartz) SCHEME for infiltrating nations and establishing parallel structures

The "open society"—as a concept and as a system—is central to the work of George Soros. For Soros, an open society stands in opposition to isolationism and monolithic thinking—in other words, to "totalitarianism."Soros adopted the ideology of Karl Popper, who published his book The Open Society and Its Enemies in 1945.In the early 1980s, Soros established the Open Society Foundation within the former socialist countries, beginning in his native Hungary. This initiative attracted dissidents, and the opening of Hungary toward the West helped accelerate the fall of the Berlin Wall.

A similar process has also taken place in the nations of North Africa.Soros's objective is to gain political and economic control over both the former "communist" Eastern Europe and Africa, in order to profit from this influence.The goal is a bloodless transformation of the political system into one that serves Soros's interests. In effect, this functions as a "Soros-style Marshall Plan"—driven by a philosophy of materialism—involving the funding of political movements and non-governmental organizations (NGOs).

This entails the creation of parallel structures within the countries where he operates, as well as the financing of political projects—specifically, the support of parties that subsequently rise to power in various nations, including France, Bulgaria, and dozens of others. The European Union and the European Commission are a project of people like Soros, with the aim of...It is no coincidence that the European Union and the European Commission seek to provide aid to Africa amounting to 32 billion euros per year.Through his financial speculations, he seeks to gain power over states, nations, and governments—solely to profit and amass wealth. He does this under the guise of "liberal strategies" and by ostensibly pursuing the concept of an "Open Society." He believes that the era of bloody, mass revolutions has passed and that there is now a different, less violent path to changing the political system and seizing control over its governance. He argues that a "liberal"—or free—society should replace one characterized by state control over the economy and the media. This is to be achieved through individuals loyal to their leader, Soros, across all sectors: politics, the economy, banking, financial institutions, ministries, and governments. These agents are cultivated within Soros's "Open Society" foundations and various non-governmental organizations (NGOs). They work to establish structures that run parallel to the state—spanning media, journalism, publishing, the judiciary, education, sociology, finance, banking, financial institutions, healthcare, and every other sphere of society.

He openly called for NATO to bomb Serbia. In more recent times—specifically around 2018—this has become a tangible reality. Soros is urging the European Commission to pay billions to address the refugee influx in Europe and to provide billions in funding for Africa—amounting to 32–35 billion euros annually.These funds, along with others, are destined to be siphoned off by affiliated firms and representatives.One of the objectives of Soros and his associates is to open up every avenue and opportunity for multinational corporations to reap massive profits and engage in money laundering.

Their slogans include: "The market is God" and "Freedom is more important than equality."Soros himself has stated: "As a market participant, I am under no obligation to concern myself with the consequences of my actions."Yet, at the same time, Soros presents himself as a savior of civil society, an opponent of market fundamentalism, and a champion of open societies and citizens' freedoms.It is also significant that Boris Berezovsky—a Russian oligarch living in exile in England—once remarked: "I nearly fainted when I found out, two years ago, that George Soros is a CIA agent."

Soros's Funding of Islamic Organizations

In recent years, Soros's Open Society Foundations has provided millions of US dollars to various Islamic organizations. This is not merely a matter of isolated initiatives by Soros, but rather ongoing sponsorship—including support for the "Muslim Brotherhood." A primary recipient of these grants is the so-called "European Network Against Racism" (ENAR).FEMYSO—the Forum of European Muslim Youth and Student Organizations—advocates for the rights of young Muslims. Another organization funded by the Soros Foundation is the Association for the Promotion of Islam in Germany (INSSAN). This organization also maintains ties with the Muslim Brotherhood.Approximately 65% of its funding comes from the Persian Gulf states.Other such organizations include the Federation of Islamic Organizations in Europe, which has a headquarters in Berlin.

Investments in "European" Islam are, in fact, enormous. The objective is the CREATION OF A PARALLEL SOCIETY—which is also Soros's goal—aimed at causing chaos in Europe and profiting from that chaos.
FEMYSO

In France, security services are monitoring approximately 18,000 adherents of radical Islam.
In Germany, there are about 12,000 Salafists who practice Wahhabism, along with 35,000 to 45,000 individuals who follow other versions of radical Islam.

IX. ARE THE REFUGEES ACTUALLY REFUGEES?

According to data from the European border agency Frontex, over 1 million immigrants entered Europe in 2015. About 885,000 of them arrived in Europe via the Eastern Mediterranean route—by boat to Greece, or by land from Turkey into Bulgaria and Greece.
In 2016, 382,000 immigrants from the Middle East, Africa, and Asia arrived using the Eastern and Central Mediterranean routes.
Greece and Italy each took in 180,000 people.
What brings them here?

The majority of the refugees are fleeing areas affected by military conflict, as well as constant harassment and repression by terrorist groups such as the Islamic State or the Taliban in Afghanistan.
Immigrants view Europe as a safe place to live.
Not all of them can be classified as economic migrants.
Some are fleeing not war, but rather destitution, unemployment, and similar hardships.
There is also the draw of the benefits provided by the "welfare state."
Immigrants hope for state subsidies for housing, education, and social assistance.
The human trafficking market is valued at between 3 and 6 billion euros.
Payments are made via cash and bank transfers.
Relatives of the immigrants pay the smugglers via bank transfer once the agreed-upon terms have been fulfilled.
Service costs:
In 2015... A boat trip from Turkey to Greece costs about 1,000 euros per person. Currently, the price is around 2,000 euros. The route from Libya to Italy costs between 1,000 and 3,000 euros per person, with similar prices applying to journeys from other North African countries to Italy.
New transfer schemes—which, in 2016, cost over 10,000 euros—allow individuals to board a plane from Istanbul to any European city.
The price includes forged passports and, almost certainly, bribes for airport customs officials.
A sea voyage from Turkey to Italy costs approximately 5,000 euros.
For an immigrant, crossing the border from Bulgaria into Serbia costs, on average, between 1,000 and 2,000 euros.
Once past Serbia, they can easily reach Hungary.
The journey from Hungary to Austria costs nearly 500 euros.
From Austria to Germany, the cost averages between 400 and 500 euros.
For Afghans, the journey from Afghanistan to Germany costs between 8,000 and 10,000 euros.

X. HOW MUCH DO TAXPAYERS PAY?!?!

According to the Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (OECD), the cost of caring for a single refugee during the first year alone amounts to approximately 10,000 euros.The bill is even higher if the refugee remains in Germany—costing between 12,000 and 20,000 euros per year. Although the latest information indicates that Germany spent 21 billion euros on 380,000 refugees, according to the OECD, Germany took in at least 900,000 refugees in 2015, spending 16 billion euros—equivalent to 0.5% of the country's GDP.In 2016, Germany spent 21.7 billion euros to address the crisis—a significantly higher figure.
Projections for 2017 stand at 21 billion euros, with an estimated 20 billion euros allocated for each subsequent year up to 2020.This represents a major budgetary item. Local authorities in Germany incur additional expenses that fall outside the state budget and are not reimbursed by the central government or the national treasury.
Funds are spent on: registration, refugee status determination procedures, refugee camps, temporary housing, emergency medical care, basic language training, civic integration courses, and the deportation of immigrants.

Local authorities fund primary and secondary education for refugees, social welfare programs, guaranteed minimum income, accommodation in camps, and language training.
Germany guarantees housing, food, and vocational training.
Laws in Sweden are similar.
In 2015, Sweden ranked second in terms of the number of refugees accepted, and first in terms of refugees per capita.
According to the OECD, in 2015, Sweden sheltered 163,000 refugees—equivalent to 1.6% of its population—and spent 6 billion euros, or 1.35% of its GDP. Annual expenditures in Sweden amount to 6 billion euros.
Costs associated with providing housing and vocational training for immigrants.
"Hidden costs"—increased crime rates, including crime among the immigrant population.

XI. THE ECONOMIC CRISIS AND THE REFUGEE CRISIS.

Where does the root cause lie? It stems from countries or financial circles that direct refugees toward wealthy nations with the intent of creating problems. The objective of these groups is to establish a parallel Muslim society within the host country, which would serve as a bridgehead for the entire wave of refugees.Yusuf al-Qaradawi, the de facto, unofficial ideologue of the "Muslim Brotherhood" organization, has stated openly: "I often tell my brothers in other countries: try to create your own small society within the larger one; otherwise, you will dissolve into it, like salt in water." In reality, these organizations serve as a foothold in European countries for a large-scale, silent invasion—not only against Christianity, but also against the rights, freedoms, morals, ethics, and legal and moral norms championed by leaders such as Merkel and Macron.

Effectively, "European liberal—and neoliberal—democracy" has become a functional tool for the creation of a "caliphate."Islamists frequently invoke the principle of equality, constantly complaining that their religious rights and freedom of expression are being violated.In practice, this concept not only creates divisions within European Muslim communities but also actively drives their radicalization.Muslim communities function as insular, closed groups capable of dismantling the open societies of European nations.This framework effectively facilitates the imposition of Sharia law—a system that Islamists enforce upon European Muslims.
Islam is gradually becoming an integral part of European life.
This process also extends to food and dietary habits.
Specifically, this concerns "halal" food.
According to Reuters, global spending on such food reached $1.1 trillion in 2015 alone, with profits amounting to $41 billion.These food products generate revenue for the "Muslim Brotherhood." In France, 60% of the production of these food products is controlled by the "Muslim Brotherhood," as these organizations are the sole entities that certify such products, allowing them to be classified as "halal."

This refers to the Union of Islamic Organizations in France, which comprises more than 200 constituent groups.

XII. THE REFUGEE WAVE AS AN "IMPORT" OF TERRORISM INTO EUROPE. THE ROLE OF THE U.S. AND EUROPEAN NATIONS IN THE IMPORTATION OF TERRORISM AND THE ISLAMIZATION OF EUROPE.

In 2014, the economic and political intelligence firm "Dim Dobrev Consulting House" conducted an investigation into the reasons behind the influx of refugees. Newspaper advertisements were noted. In reality, a refugee camp in Turkey, located on the border with Syria, generated a 15,000-unit increase in the turnover of food and other product sales.
Essentially, this is a business.

The USA and various European countries were involved in the importation of terrorism.In 2015, we conducted an investigation which revealed that an individual in Bulgaria, identified as R.P.—who maintains close ties with prosecutors from the Supreme Cassation Prosecutor's Office—was selling authentic American passports and U.S. driver's licenses. To facilitate this, he would show potential buyers his own genuine American passports, despite the fact that he had never set foot on U.S. territory for even a single second.
These passports were offered at prices ranging from 5,000 to 15,000 euros.

This individual enjoyed the protection of Chief Prosecutor Sotir Tsatsarov, Prime Minister Boyko Boyrisov, and all the security services.Reports were filed with the State Agency for National Security (SANS) and the General Directorate for Combating Organized Crime (GDBOP); the U.S. Ambassadors were notified, and U.S. Presidents Barack Obama and Donald Trump were personally informed.

There was no response whatsoever.The security services—SANS and GDBOP—which report directly to Prime Minister Boyko Borisov, stated that this matter did not fall within their remit. In reality, the investigation confirms the sale of between 5,000 and 13,000 such passports.Separately, the State Agency for Foreigners has issued Bulgarian passports to over 45,000 individuals—some of whom claim to be descendants of Bulgarians—hailing from African nations, as well as from Iraq, Syria, and other countries.The European Commission, German Chancellor Merkel, and French President Macron were informed—yet there has been no reaction and no action taken. Clearly, these institutions are complicit in this entire process of importing terrorism and Islamization into Europe.

The profits are enormous.
As evidence, consider that Germany spent 21 billion euros in a single year on 380,000 refugees.
This represents a sum far greater than what is spent on German citizens.

XIII. THE ISLAMIZATION OF EUROPE

The plan is simple:
Imams are being funded.
The two primary organizations driving the Islamization of Europe are Saudi Arabia and Turkey’s Diyanet.
The Diyanet has an annual budget of approximately 2.5 billion US dollars, employs 150,000 people, and has over 300,000 students enrolled in its Imam-Hatip schools (schools for training imams).
More than 1 million Turkish youths are currently studying to become Imam-Hatips.

These countries fund not only the salaries of imams across Europe—outside of Turkey and Saudi Arabia—but also finance all related activities, including the construction of mosques. The process of Islamization in Bulgaria, for instance, began in 1999 under the administration of Ivan Kostov, a figure close to the United States.
Over 30 non-governmental Muslim organizations were established, and more than 1,500 mosque minarets were built—placing Bulgaria third in the construction of new mosques, following Germany and France, and ahead of England.
Islamization is currently underway in Bulgaria, specifically targeting the Roma population. This group—97% of whom lack formal education and professional skills—begins having children at the ages of 13 or 14, often producing dozens of offspring, some of whom are even sold.
This serves as the easiest path toward Islamization.
Over a five-year period, non-governmental organizations focused on the Roma community received 890 million levs in funding from the European Commission, ostensibly for the integration of the Roma. The result has been zero. They have neither become educated nor culturally assimilated—but they are being Islamized.

Another aspect of the process involving imported terrorism and Islamization is the issuance of over 25,000 passports to "Bulgarian citizens"—including individuals from Africa who were granted Bulgarian passports on the grounds of being descendants of Bulgarians. There have been instances where Bulgarian passports were issued to terrorists and individuals proven to be jihadists.

These non-governmental organizations are also funded with the help of Soros.
Over 1,500 mosques have been built in Bulgaria over the last 15 years.
Between 1989 and 2007, 323 new mosques were constructed.
In Great Britain, 500 churches have closed in recent years, while over 400 mosques have been built.
In other words, this is Soros's plan for the Islamization of Europe—a plan in which all the prominent leaders of major nations are participating.
There is profit to be made here: 80 to 90 percent of the total funding ends up in the hands of "our people"—the mafia.

Neither Merkel, Macron, nor Juncker—nor any other prominent European leaders—have any objection to this process of Islamization. Since they do not oppose it, it follows that they are participants in this entire process. The importation of terrorism and Islamization is a lucrative business—generating massive profits through funding for integration and security systems (equipment, devices, and full-scale gear), amounting to billions of euros. This includes security infrastructure deployed across entire cities, such as surveillance camera networks and other systems.

Diyanet controls over 10,000 mosques in Germany.

XIV. REAL FACTS: MIGRATION ROUTES AND THE REFUGEE CRISIS

There are three primary migrant routes:

- The Central Mediterranean route (41%)—passing mainly through Italy, and to a lesser extent, Spain.
- The Western Balkans route (26%)—passing through Bulgaria and other countries.
- The Eastern Mediterranean route (16%)—passing through Greece.

During the first eight months of 2023, the flow of migrants along the Central Mediterranean route increased by 150% compared to the same period in 2022. The Central Mediterranean route accounts for 41% of all illegal border crossings into the European Union.The European Commission is seeking to push through the new Pact on Migration and Asylum (2022–2023). As a key state along the Central Mediterranean route, Italy is pushing for a revision of the Dublin Regulations to ensure a fairer distribution of migrants across all EU member states, seeking to eliminate the current requirement that migrants be returned to the country where they first entered the EU. At the same time, the Meloni government is attempting to redefine the concepts of "safe third countries"—to which migrants could be repatriated—and "safe ports"—where individuals rescued at sea could be brought—with the aim of easing the burden on Italian ports. Meanwhile, Poland and Hungary oppose the mandatory, equitable redistribution of migrants among all EU member states. Consequently, the strategy of "outsourcing" the migration issue is gaining increasing traction.

Currently, the situation in Tunisia presents the most significant challenge; in 2023, more than 60% of the irregular migrants arriving in Italy originated from there. In July 2023, a cooperation protocol was signed between the EU and Tunisia, under which the Union pledged direct financial support and large-scale investments across various sectors of the Tunisian economy, totaling €1 billion. Furthermore, the protocol includes the provision of €127 million in direct aid to support border security and address the migration issue.

XV. DELIBERATELY FLAWED DECISIONS BY THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION REGARDING THE MIGRATION ISSUE

In fact, the EU is actively pursuing solutions along two main lines.

Nevertheless, on December 20, 2023—following three years of negotiations—the Council of the EU and the European Parliament announced that a political agreement had been reached on key issues concerning the Pact.

On May 15, 2024, the New Pact was officially adopted by the Council of the EU.

- Primarily, the Pact places the main responsibility for receiving refugees on the Member States located along the EU's external borders—that is, the countries where migrants first enter the Union. Central to this is the Screening Regulation, which establishes uniform rules for identifying non-EU nationals upon their arrival in the Union; this is intended to enhance security within the Schengen Area.

- All technical procedures—including screening, fingerprinting, assessing the vulnerability of migrants, and processing their asylum applications—fall upon the countries where they first entered the EU. The period during which the countries in question will bear responsibility for migrants is extended to 20 months (for those rescued at sea, the period is reduced to one year). At the same time, these states are granted the option to ignore or circumvent the rules whenever a "crisis" arises—a development that, overall, erodes the concept of a unified European response to the migration issue, leads to a decline in solidarity, and results in even greater chaos. In other words, we are once again witnessing an attempt to shift responsibility from the EU level to the national level—specifically, to the states where migrants first entered the EU.

- Secondly, there is the Eurodac regulation: the creation of a common database designed to obtain more accurate and comprehensive information regarding the unauthorized movement of migrants.

- Thirdly, there is the regulation of asylum procedures. The objective is to make the processes for granting asylum and returning migrants—as well as border control—faster and more efficient.

- Fourthly, a new solidarity mechanism among member states is being established to balance the existing system, under which a few countries currently bear responsibility for the vast majority of asylum applications.

- Fifthly, there is the regulation of crises involving force majeure circumstances: that is, ensuring the EU's future readiness to effectively counter crisis situations, including the issue of so-called... "instrumentalization of migration."

A third attempt to outsource the problem took place during a visit by a high-level EU delegation to Cairo in March 2024. The delegation included European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen and Italian Prime Minister Giorgia Meloni—who acts as a driving force within the Union in efforts to resolve the migration issue—as well as the prime ministers of Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, and Greece.

The objective was to negotiate a deal similar to the one reached with Tunisia last year. Within the framework of a so-called "strategic and comprehensive partnership" between the EU and Egypt, the agreement entails investments across various sectors of the local economy, assistance in overcoming the economic crisis, and border protection—totaling €7.4 billion to be disbursed between 2024 and 2027.

Two priority areas are of particular importance to the Union: energy security and migration. The former relates to the fact that Egyptian liquefied natural gas (LNG) has become increasingly essential to Europe following its move away from Russian gas. Furthermore, the EU plans to expand cooperation with Cairo in the production of renewable energy and "green hydrogen."

Secondly, Egypt is surrounded by countries where armed conflicts are raging: Libya, Sudan, Gaza, and Syria. There are currently 9 million refugees in the country, including 4 million from Sudan and 1.5 million from Syria. It has been established that many of them would like to move on to the EU.

According to the "Guide for Resolving Any and All Crises Caused by the Deep Mafia"—developed as early as 2003 by Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev—here is the correct solution for addressing the refugee and migration crisis.

This solution—developed in 2003 as part of a set of practices for resolving crises triggered by the oligarchy and representatives of what Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev terms "Financial-Banking-Resource-Technological Mafiotized Materialism" (following his 2003 development of the "Theory and Practice of Inducing Crises")—was actually proposed back in 2017 to U.S. President Donald Trump as a way to handle the migration issue involving Mexico and other South American nations.

The solution is as follows: Given that the majority of migrants—specifically those in Europe, as opposed to those in the U.S. (where, on average, 85–92% of working-age migrants find employment)—show a significantly lower employment rate in Europe, where the figure is only 15–19%... Most migrants in Europe are primarily focused on draining the social welfare systems of European nations—especially countries like Germany, France, and others with well-developed social safety nets.

The only solution is as follows: Collaboratively establish the legal framework within the countries of origin—specifically in their border regions—to create conditions that attract foreign private investment. This would facilitate the development of manufacturing facilities, along with the necessary infrastructure and the construction of settlements. These settlements would include housing for the migrants, schools for their children, and kindergartens, as well as essential facilities such as hospitals, vocational schools, and other public services.

This approach also entails implementing a tax policy designed to support such foreign private investment—offering a favorable tax regime and establishing the necessary conditions for the export of finished goods. This is the only practical solution to halt the migration and refugee crises—crises instigated by an elite rooted in finance, banking, and technology, who use materialism to manufacture instability within European nations, aiming to make these countries easier to control and dominate.

In practice, by adopting ineffective measures, the European elite has been colluding with these very actors—those who have continuously created, and continue to create, migration, refugee, social, and economic crises across the nations of Europe. Unlike in Europe, the creation of buffer industrial and administrative zones in Mexico—aimed at reducing migration from Mexico to the United States—would serve as a long-term solution to these issues. This approach involves attracting private investment and establishing production facilities—specifically relocating high-cost operations from the U.S. to these zones, where resources are cheaper—thereby generating higher profits for private investors. At the same time, it creates conditions for the development and livelihood of these migrants.

By refusing to address the migration problem in this manner, the European Commission, led by Ursula von der Leyen, is effectively serving the interests of the elite—making it easier for them to exert control and manufacture various crises within Europe. For these crises are not merely refugee, social, or economic crises, but also ethnic crises—crises that facilitate the triggering of further crises, as well as the control and subjugation of Europe and its nations by the United States and the Freemasons.The United Kingdom's withdrawal from the European Union (Brexit) was largely driven by the refugee crisis and the flow of migrants into the UK. Until 2022, migrants had the right to enter the country accompanied by their families; according to some estimates, this accounted for up to 40% of all migrants. It should be noted that those who complete their education in the UK are eligible to work there and apply for British citizenship. The largest groups of migrants arriving in the country come from India and Nigeria (21% and 12%, respectively). British business interests—not to mention the Royal Family—benefit from the continued existence of the Commonwealth. In 2011, then-Prime Minister David Cameron acknowledged that the policy of multiculturalism in the country had failed, yet the elite simply had no alternative. For instance, between 1998 and 2002, the influx of asylum seekers into the UK consisted primarily of nationals from Somalia, Afghanistan, and Iraq. By 2023, however, the most frequent asylum applicants were citizens of Afghanistan, Iran, Pakistan, India, Bangladesh, Turkey, and Iraq.

The statistics bear this out:

19 percent of the population in Germany was born outside of Germany.

18.5 percent of the population in France was born outside of France.

For the United Kingdom, this figure stands at 23 percent. If we consider the second and third generations born in countries like Germany, France, and the UK—descendants of migrants who were not born in those nations—the statistics reveal a sharp stratification of the population. This creates the potential to trigger various types of crises—social, religious, economic, and otherwise—with the ultimate goal of making it easier for the "deep mafia" to seize control of these states.

Currently, all of Europe—including Germany, France, and the UK—serves as yet another example of acute societal division. The migration policy adopted by Germany—spearheaded personally by Chancellor Angela Merkel as a means to address the country's "labor shortage"—has instead caused immense problems in Germany. These include murders of German citizens by migrants, as well as rapes and other offenses committed by individuals who rely on Germany's social welfare system without contributing through employment.

German Chancellor Angela Merkel's 2015 decision to open the country's borders to migrants and refugees stands as one of the worst decisions in the entire history of the European Union.

This decision was truly reckless, arrogant, and narcissistic; it is no coincidence that Merkel is ranked among the worst chancellors in German history—leaders who have caused and created massive problems for Germany and its society.

Chancellor Angela Merkel's decision did not affect Germany alone; it also impacted other nations, such as Sweden. 40 percent of the asylum-seeking population in Germany consists of foreigners. It is no coincidence that Angela Merkel's decision also triggered the UK's decision regarding Brexit.

Since 2015, over 13.5 million asylum applications have been filed in the European Union. The "welcome culture" in Germany—promoted by Angela Merkel—is causing the social systems of all European Union member states to buckle under the pressure of migrants; this is particularly evident in Poland, Italy, and Spain, as well as in Germany itself.

To top it all off—in service to the "Deep State"—there are laws in place across European Union countries that restrict criticism and the free expression of opinion regarding the European Commission's migration policy.

Recap: Over 68 million migrants had entered the European Union by 2025.

For comparison, in 2010, there were only 40 million migrants in the European Union. Currently, there are over 18 million in Germany; while 73% of them are of working age, 80% of them have no desire to work.

In Spain, the number of migrants exceeds 10 million.

The truth, however, is that this system—MIGRATION—guarantees massive profits for a select few belonging to the "DEEP MAFIA."
The greed of Western elites—who serve this "DEEP MAFIA"—acts as a generator of migration and crises of every kind, with the ultimate goal of facilitating the seizure, control, and plunder of Europe.
Currently, the total number of migrants globally stands at approximately 300 million people.
Of greatest concern are the two primary migration flows: from Mexico to the United States (crossing the Rio Grande), and from Asia and Africa to Southern Europe (across the Mediterranean Sea).
These refugee and migration crises will trigger not only economic, social, and financial crises—straining the social welfare systems of the affected nations—but will also incite ethnic conflicts that will come to dominate the societal agenda.
In reality, current migration flows are primarily a consequence of the irresponsible and reckless interference by Western nations in the internal affairs of sovereign states within the Global South, driven by the desire to exploit and subjugate them.
It is precisely for this reason that the "DEEP MAFIA" employs every available means to stoke conflicts and volatile situations, fostering animosity between individual nations. 14. Conclusion
Everything stated above demonstrates how representatives of a "financially-banking, resource-based, technological, mafia-driven materialism" in Europe and the USA orchestrate the entire process of instigating refugee crises and waves, replacing civilizations, importing terrorism, and Islamizing Europe—with the sole objective of generating massive profits.

This entire framework is based on the "Theory of Mafiotism" (Mafiotismus) developed by Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev.
FORMULA OF MAFIOTISMUS
The simplest model of mafiotismus—describing the factors that influence the scale, nature, and other characteristics of the mafia—is as follows:

MAFIOTISMUS = Personal Power (over state institutions, the state, etc.) + Influence + Connections (to private companies) + Interests (personal, private, or corporate) + Orders (issuing and executing directives) + Personal management and control of all levels of the state (including mafia structures, whether internal or external) + Monopoly rights + Laws, rules, practices, and procedures + The capacity to make alternative decisions (while managing obligations, responsibilities, and ethical/moral standards) + Personal management and control over the distribution of public state funds and other resources (including European funds).

This MAFIOTISMUS serves as the foundation for the "financially-banking, resource-based, technological, mafia-driven materialism" developed by Lord Prof. Momchil Dobrev-Halachev.
This entire process is facilitated and accelerated by the environment that gives rise to crises of all kinds: neoliberalism and globalization. Conclusion: The goal of the New World Order is the creation and imposition of DIGITAL MAFIA-FASCISM—incorporating elements of a new Holocaust and genocide—as well as a dictatorship by the "deep" mafia and the global Masonic elite.
